Attending Child and Adolescent Psychiatrists/Psychologists

The Department of Psychiatry at the University of California, San Francisco invites applications for Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Attending Psychiatrist and/or Psychologist. The positions will be filled at the Instructor to Full Professor level in a series commensurate with experience, with an anticipated start date of January 1, 2020, or thereafter.

Qualifications

- Physician applicants for the Attending Psychiatry positions must be board certified/eligible in Psychiatry and Child and Adolescent Psychiatry; licensed to practice medicine in California at time of appointment; and, have demonstrated clinical and educational experience in child and adolescent psychiatry.
Psychologist applicants for the Attending Psychologist positions role must have completed a PhD or equivalent; both pre- and post-doctoral training in child and adolescent psychology or a related field; licensed to practice psychology in California at time of appointment; and, have demonstrated clinical and educational experience in child and adolescent psychology.

- Demonstrated ability in teaching and clinical supervision
- Demonstrated interest, commitment, and cultural competence in working with culturally diverse patient populations
- Interest in and willingness to support clinical research activities
- Applicant’s materials must list (pending) qualifications upon application submission
- All requirements are to be met by the time of the appointment

Responsibilities

- Serve as a Child and Adolescent Attending Psychiatrist or Psychologist
- Engage in innovation and continual improvements in clinical and educational programs
- Engage in clinical scholarship
- Participate in teaching, supervision and assessment of trainees; collaborate with training program directors in clinical curricular development for medical students, residents, psychology interns, postdoctoral fellows, and/or graduate students in a variety of disciplines

Apply online at https://aprecruit.ucsf.edu/JPF02650 [1].

UCSF seeks candidates whose experience, teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.

Contact Us
Psychiatry Intranet
UCSF Webmail
UCSF Main Site

© 2020 The Regents of the University of California

Source URL (modified on 10/03/2019 - 3:57pm): https://psych.ucsf.edu/JPF02650

Links
[1] https://aprecruit.ucsf.edu/JPF02650